PEOPLE, CULTURE AND REMUNERATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

Purpose

The People, Culture and Remuneration Committee Charter (Charter) governs the operations of the People, Culture and Remuneration Committee (Committee). The Committee has been established by the Board of the Company (Board) to assist it in fulfilling its responsibilities in relation to key people issues including diversity and inclusion, governance of company culture and remuneration of employees and Directors. The purpose of the Committee is to assist the Board by:

- reviewing the Company's Diversity and Inclusion Policy, measurable objectives for achieving diversity and inclusion and progress against these objectives;
- monitoring and evaluating the culture of the organisation (culture being the collective behaviours driven by a set of norms and values that directly impact decision making) in line with the values of the Company, including ensuring the values of the Company are embedded in people frameworks and programs;
- providing advice and recommendations to the Board in relation to remuneration packages of senior executives, Non-Executive Directors and Executive Directors, including total fixed remuneration, bonus, equity-based awards and termination payments;
- regularly reviewing the Company's remuneration framework to ensure that it continues to align to:
 - business objectives in a manner that is consistent with the long-term sustainability of the Company; and
 - a broad range of stakeholder interests over the long-term (for example, customer, community, regulator, investor interests);
- reviewing and providing recommendations to the Board in relation to the Company's talent acquisition, retention, learning and development and termination policies and / or practices;
- considering those aspects of the Company's remuneration policies and packages, including equity-based incentives, which should be subject to shareholder approval.

This Charter will be made available on the Company's website.

Membership

The Committee members will be appointed by the Board. The Committee will consist of:

- at least three members;
- only Non-Executive Directors; and
- a majority of independent Directors.

The Committee will be chaired by an independent Director.

The Company Secretary or such other person as nominated by the Committee will be the secretary of the Committee.

Meetings

The Committee will meet as often as necessary but must meet at least twice a year and one of those meetings must take place at least two months prior to each annual general meeting of the Company.

Special meetings of the Committee may be convened as required. The Chair of the Committee, through the Company Secretary, will call a meeting of the Committee if requested by any Committee member, the Chair of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director or the Company Secretary.

Non-Executive Directors who are not Committee members may attend the Committee meetings at any time. The Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director and the Chief People and Culture Officer may attend all Committee meetings by standing invitation but may be asked to leave the meeting at any time. The Committee may invite other persons, including executives of the Company and internal specialists or external advisors, to attend Committee meetings, if considered appropriate by the Chair of the Committee.

A quorum for any meeting of the Committee will be two Committee members, of whom at least one must be an independent Director.

The Chair of the Committee will determine the meeting agenda after appropriate consultation.

Reporting

The Committee will regularly report to the Board on all matters relevant to the Committee's role and responsibilities.

The Chair of the Committee will report and as appropriate make recommendations to the Board after each meeting of the Committee on matters dealt with by the Committee.

The proceedings of all meetings will be minuted and these will be included in the papers for the next Board meeting after each Committee meeting.

The Committee will ensure that the Board is made aware in a timely manner of any people, culture and remuneration issues (including gross employee misconduct) which may significantly impact upon the Company.

The Committee must review and make a recommendation to the Board to approve:

- the details to be published in the Company's Remuneration Report or any other statutory report or document with respect to the activities and responsibilities of the Committee; and
- any statement on the Company's remuneration policy or disclosure of executive compensation that may be required by law or other regulatory requirements (including any such statement to be included in the Company's Annual Report).
