

1. Purpose of this policy

The purpose of this policy is to describe OFX's approach and commitment to communication with the objective of providing all stakeholders, market participants and the wider community with ready access to balanced and understandable information about OFX.

OFX is committed to:

- a. effective communication with its shareholders, market participants, customers, employees, suppliers, financiers, creditors, other stakeholders and the wider community; and
- b. to improving access to information to ensure that all stakeholders, market participants and the wider community are informed of its activities and performance.

OFX will endeavour to make publicly available all information to ensure that trading in its shares takes place in an efficient, competitive and informed market.

This policy will be made available on OFX's website.

Capitalised terms used in this policy have the meaning given in section 12.

2. Who this policy applies to

This policy applies to all OFX Personnel.

3. Confidentiality

Information that OFX considers private and that is not generally available outside OFX (Confidential Information) and information that OFX owns, develops, pays to have developed or to which it has an exclusive right (Proprietary Information) must be treated as follows:

- a. OFX Group and all OFX Personnel must ensure that they do not disclose any Confidential Information or Proprietary Information to any third party or other OFX Personnel who does not have a valid business reason for receiving that information; and
- b. if Confidential Information or Proprietary Information is required to be provided to third parties or other OFX Personnel for valid business purposes, OFX Group and OFX Personnel must:
 - i. take adequate precautions to ensure that information is only used for those purposes for which it is provided and is not misused or disseminated to OFX's detriment; and
 - ii. ensure that the information is returned or destroyed when the purpose is complete.

Such precautions include obtaining a confidentiality agreement or other undertaking. Advice about these measures can be obtained from the Legal team and Company Secretary.

Any information concerning OFX Group which is not generally available and which may have a material effect on the price or value of OFX's securities may need to be disclosed in order for OFX to comply with its continuous disclosure obligations referred to in OFX's Continuous Disclosure Policy.

4. Continuous disclosure

OFX is a public company listed on the ASX. It is subject to continuous disclosure requirements under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and the ASX Listing Rules, in addition to periodic and specific disclosure requirements.

A fundamental component of this policy is OFX's continuous disclosure program. To ensure OFX complies with its continuous disclosure obligations, the Board has adopted a Continuous Disclosure Policy which is available on the OFX website www.ofx.com/en-au/investors/corporate-governance.

5. Communications with the ASX

All communication with the ASX will be in accordance with the ASX Listing Rules. The Company Secretary is responsible for all communications with the ASX.

Information communicated to the ASX will also be linked on OFX's website www.ofx.com/en-au/investors. Shareholders can also access OFX's ASX announcements via the ASX website (ASX Code: OFX) www.asx.com.au/markets/company.OFX

For further information refer to OFX's Continuous Disclosure Policy.

6. Communication with shareholders and the market

This policy is designed to ensure that OFX:

- a. provides timely and accurate information equally to all shareholders and market participants regarding OFX including its financial situation, performance, ownership, strategies, activities and governance; and
- b. adopts channels for disseminating information that are fair, timely and cost efficient.

In addition to those policies and processes contained in the Continuous Disclosure Policy, OFX has implemented a number of processes to ensure achievement of these goals.

Company meetings

The meetings of shareholders of OFX provides an opportunity for OFX to provide information to its shareholders as well as for shareholders to meet the Directors and senior management of OFX and ask questions about operational and financial aspects of the company. OFX encourages attendance at, and participation in, general meetings either in person, by proxy or attorney or by other means adopted by the Board. At each annual general meeting (AGM), the Chair will allow a reasonable opportunity for members to ask questions of the Board.

OFX typically holds its AGM in Sydney during August.

A notice of a meeting is sent to shareholders prior to meetings, including details of the time and place of the meeting, the resolutions to be considered and proxy voting procedures.

OFX requires that its auditor attend each AGM so as to be available to answer any shareholder questions about the conduct of the audit and the preparation and content of the auditor's reports.

Investor and analyst briefings

OFX recognises the importance of the relationship between OFX and its institutional investors, brokers and analysts. OFX may from time-to-time conduct briefings to these groups. In these cases, the following protocols apply:

- a. material information which is required to be disclosed under the Continuous Disclosure Policy will not be disclosed unless it has been previously, or is simultaneously, released to the market;
- b. if material information which has not been disclosed is inadvertently released, OFX will immediately release the information to the market via the ASX and place it on OFX's website;
- c. questions at briefings that deal with material information that has not previously been disclosed will not be answered; and
- d. OFX will place a copy of the presentation material on OFX's website.

Communication with employees

OFX recognises that its employees are central to OFX's success. In order to enable our people to fulfil their role to the high standards required and to promote employee satisfaction, OFX aims to ensure effective internal communication with employees. Effective internal communication with employees starts with their direct manager and with accessibility to senior management.

Employee briefings

In addition to regional and functional team meetings, OFX will conduct regular briefings to its people so that all OFX Personnel are aware of relevant activities within OFX. These briefings may be conducted by the Chair, the Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director or the Chief Financial Officer.

Electronic communication

OFX's email system allows OFX people to communicate simply and easily with each other and with management. All employees have access to this system and are encouraged to use it to improve the flow of information and communication generally. OFX will use email and other electronic message platforms to ensure a continued flow of information and to communicate effectively internally. OFX Personnel should feel free to communicate with any member of management by email.

7. Communications with the media

All communication with the media will be through the Chair, the Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director or the Chief Financial Officer who are the OFX authorised spokespersons in accordance with the Continuous Disclosure Policy, or other persons authorised by the Board from time to time (if appropriate).

8. Communications with other stakeholders

OFX is committed to ensuring that all stakeholders regularly receive information about OFX and its activities. While individual briefings may be held with key stakeholders, such as insurers and financiers, the principal means of ensuring that stakeholders have access to information will be through OFX's website.

9. Website

OFX's website is an important communication tool and is the primary means to provide information to all stakeholders including shareholders, brokers, analysts, media and OFX Personnel. It contains a range of information including relevant codes, policies and charters, media and market announcements and presentations to shareholders and institutional investors. It has been designed to enable information to be accessed in a clear and readily accessible manner.

10. Shareholder and investor queries

Shareholders with enquiries relating to their holding of OFX shares can contact the OFX share registry, MUFG Corporate Markets, which provides a call centre to deal with all such enquiries.

Contact details for the share registry and investor relations including email, telephone and facsimile contacts are provided on the OFX website and are also provided in the annual and half-year reports to shareholders.

11. More information

If you have any questions arising from this policy or require further information, please contact the Company Secretary.

12. Definitions

ASX means ASX Limited ACN 008 624 691 or the securities market operated by ASX Limited, as the case may be.

Chair means the chair of the Board.

Board means the board of directors of OFX Group Limited.

Director means a director of OFX Group Limited.

OFX means OFX Group Limited ACN 165 602 273.

OFX Group means OFX or any of its Related Bodies Corporate.

OFX Personnel includes Directors, Subsidiary Directors and all other employees, consultants and contractors of the OFX Group.

Related Body Corporate has the meaning given in the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth).

Subsidiary Director means a director of any Related Bodies Corporate of OFX.

13. Policy review

The Board will review this policy to assess whether it is operating effectively and whether changes are required:

- at least once in every two years; and
- more regularly as legislative requirements change and best practice evolves.

This policy may be amended by resolution of the Board.

Updated: 17 September 2025

Author: Chief Legal Officer and Company Secretary

Approved by: Board

Next review date: September 2027